AUSTRALIAN REINED COWHORSE CLASS RULES

October 2021

The following document provides a brief overview of the rules governing each of the classes offered by the ARCHA.

Please be aware, that it is the responsibility of all competitors to know the rules, regardless of whether or not they are stated in this document.

Should you have any questions about rules or are unsure, please contact the ARCHA.

→ Please note- The horses age is recognised at the start of the show season. Horses will age up after the National Finals. So if your horse is 5 at the start of new show season, your horse will stay 5 until National Finals (Subject to change should an aged event be rescheduled).

National (Sanctioned) Classes:

The classes tabled below are run as per the NRCHA (USA) Rule book and are subject to change in accordance with such.

For further information or to seek clarification of classes and the rules in which they are governed, please refer to the NRCHA Rule Book.

OPEN TWO REINED COWHORSE

Description	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> This class is open to all competitors. Open to all horses who have not competed in a bridle (one handed) down the fence. Two Reined class is open to any aged horse; however if a competitor show the horse in a Two Reined class or bridle class down the fence, the horse automatically becomes ineligible to compete in the following aged events: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Futurity (3 years old) All Hackamore classes- including the Hackamore Classic (5 & Under). The horse would still be eligible to compete in the Derby (4 & 5 year old horses only). Horses shown in a bridle, one handed, down the fence in any class prior to 2021 show season are not eligible for the Two Reined class.
Equipment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> During that show year, the horse can be shown in a bridle class & Two Reined class, however within that specific class, they must show in the head gear requirement for that class. In standard cow horse classes, where the headstall is specific to the horse's age, ie Non Pro Cow Horse Class, Advanced Boxing Class, Limited Boxing Class, etc, horse's age determines headgear- snaffle bit or hackamore for 5 and under & two rein (one year only) or bridle [one handed] for 6 years and over). If horse shows in Two Reined class, the horse must show in Two Reined headstall If horse shows in bridle class, the horse must show in bridle headstall Competitors are required to wear a long sleeve, button up shirt, jeans, cowboy boots, cowboy hat or safety helmet are to be worn. Competitors to compete in a western saddle. Chaps / Chinks are required.
General	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Two Rein period of eligibility starts the moment a competitor competes their horse in a bridle (one handed) or Two Reined Class, regardless of what point in the show year the horse is entered, that horse only gets the remainder of that show year to compete in the Two Reined Class. For example, the ARCHA show year ends in November, if you decide to enter the horse in our September show, for the first time in Bridle Class or Two Reined Class that horse only has until November in the same year, to be eligible to compete in the Two Reined Class.

General

- Rookie classes are judged under NRCHA rules (same as Two Handed and Sanctioned classes).
- Competitors can enter one horse per Rookie class at any given show (ie one horse in Rookie Boxing, one horse in Rookie Beginning Fence Work, or same horse for both classes).
- This class will use rerun cattle.
- Rookie classes are ribbon award only classes.
- At any ARCHA show, a competitor cannot enter the Rookie classes if they are also entered in any of the Cow Horse Classes at the same show; however,
- Rookie competitors can enter the Rookie classes and the Two Handed Boxing and Beginning Fence Work Classes and, or the sanctioned Limited Boxing and Beginning Fence Work classes at the same show.
- Rookie riders are not required to own the horse on which they compete.

Rider becomes ineligible to compete at the end of the show season in Rookie classes if:

1. Rider wins three Rookie Boxing classes; rider becomes ineligible for Rookie Boxing class.
2. Rider wins three Beginning Fence Work classes; rider becomes ineligible for Rookie Beginning Fence Work class.
3. Rider wins 1st place or 2nd place (as long as more than two entries in class) in a Two Handed or sanctioned class; rider becomes ineligible to compete in Rookie classes.
4. Rider earns 100 points in specific Rookie class, they automatically become ineligible for that Rookie Class (See point system below):

Rookie Point System:

1ST – 25pts
 2-3RD – 20pts
 4-6th – 15pts
 7-10th - 10pts

⇒ For the above mentioned situations (Points 1-4), rider remains eligible to compete in the Rookie classes for the remainder of the show season

5. Rider wins any prizemoney in a two handed or sanctioned cow horse class (as long as more than two entries in class class), rider becomes ineligible to compete in Rookie classes.

⇒ For above mentioned situation (Point 5), rider becomes ineligible to compete in Rookie classes takes effect at the conclusion of the current show.

PLEASE NOTE: Top riders (based on the Rookie points earned or automatic qualifier) are invited back to the Rookie Shoot Out at the National Finals.

ARCHA reserves the right to make the National Finals an open invitation event if in the best interest of its members, ie COVID-19 hindering the running of an adequate number of shows to allow competitors to qualify.

ARCHA NATIONAL FINALS

Competitors are required to qualify in order to attend the ARCHA National Finals.

*Please note that the ARCHA reserves the right to make the National Finals an open invitation event if in the best interest of its members, ie COVID-19 hindering the running of an adequate number of shows to allow competitors to qualify.

How to qualify

1. Rider is in the TOP Points standings as determined by the ARCHA based on amount of competitors that enter the class throughout the year. Points will be awarded in accordance with the NRCHA (USA) Rule Book.
2. Rider wins an AUTOMATIC QUALIFIER. What that means is that at all ARCHA & ARCHA recognised shows, if a competitor wins the class, they automatically punch their ticket straight to the National Finals. If they are in the TOP POINTS standings, the competitor come off the Points Board and the next competitor below you bumps up into their slot.
3. Rider is the TOP Rider in an ARCHA recognised Affiliate. If the competitor has not qualified in one of the other two ways, and the rider is the Top Rider in their Affiliate club in a class the ARCHA hosts at the National Finals, the competitor will punch their ticket to the National Finals (Class must be a class the ARCHA offers at the National Finals & must be judged by a recognized ARCHA Judge).

This is a brief overview of the rules of each class offered by the ARCHA. It is the responsibility of all competitors to have read and be aware of the rules. If you have any questions about rules or are unsure, please contact the ARCHA.
