There is a set workout, which will be emailed to competitors after close of entries. Horses are to be shown in a plain bridle, leather stable halter or plain show halter. Make up is minimal. Upon being directed by the steward to enter the ring, each horse will walk straight towards the judge, halt and be stood in a more natural pose (lowered head and neck) than used in other Arabian in hand classes. An 'open stance' (ie all 4 legs visible from either side) may also be used. The judge will then direct the competitor to complete the set workout, walk a triangle, then trot a triangle, before halting again. The horse then leaves the ring via the exit. The workout and blank scoring sheet will be emailed to competitors after close of entries. Sporthorse saddle classes are judged on the circle at the walk, trot and canter. Lengthening of any gait may be required; a rein back whilst lined up may also be executed. Horses are presented as if for a show hunter class in with no bling browbands and minimal makeup.
