The Daylesford Agricultural Society Inc.

In the year 1865, the first Show was held in the Jamison Hotel Yard, and was called 'The Grain Show.' Later it became known as the 'Agricultural Show', and for some considerable time was held in the old showgrounds at the corner of Malmsbury Road and Knox Street, and later at the grounds known as Middleton Park. The showgrounds are now established at Victoria Park, and Daylesford's annual show is one of the State's best exhibitions.

3. Every exhibitor, where pertinent, on making the entry, will receive a card with the Section, Class and Number of the exhibit thereon, which must be fixed firmly on the exhibit, without the production of which no exhibit will be allowed in the arena, and no vehicle or stock or any kind not entered for exhibition will be allowed to remain in the arena, except for special purposes.
4. No judge shall be an exhibitor in that Section in which he/she is judging.
5. All exhibits must be owned by the exhibitor, who may be required to lodge with the Secretary the required certificate to that effect. Should it be proved to the satisfaction of the Committee that an animal or any other exhibit has been entered under a false name, pedigree, or description for the purpose of misleading the Committee or judges as to the qualification or properties, the violation by an exhibitor of any one of the regulations will involve the forfeiture of the premium awarded him/her. Proof of ownership is to rest with the exhibitor. All stock exhibits must be of the breed as entered or no prize will be awarded.
