Conditions

All entrants must be a current financial Competitive Junior member of Equestrian NSW (ENSW) at the date and time of entry. Entries cannot be accepted without your current membership number.

Entries

Entries will ONLY be accepted via nominate: <https://www.nominate.com.au>

Eventing is subject to a current MER.

Rider and horse combinations can only compete in two lessons per day. (One AM lesson and One PM Lesson). Horses may participate in 1 cross country session.

Limit of two horses per rider.

All horses and ponies must be four years of age or over at time of entry. Horses' ages are assessed from 1 August of the year of birth.

COVID-19

All participants (riders and connections) must comply with the NSW Government COVID-19 Public Health Orders in place at the time and the ENSW COVID-19 Safety Plan, which will be published just prior to the event.

REFUND POLICY

Withdrawal of entries prior to the closing date of entries will receive a refund.

Any withdrawal of a horse/rider after close of entries for any reason/medical/veterinary grounds or are classed as being unfit to compete, shall be refunded 50% of clinic entry fees.

This will be refunded only if a medical/veterinary certificate is received within 48 hours of the notification.

Gear Check

Discipline Rules relating to gear must be adhered to. If you are unsure, please ask at the office before you begin your lesson.

Stabling and Camping

There will be no overnight camping or stabling. Day stays only. Day stay/admin fee is $5 per horse.

Bicycles and Motorised Bikes and Scooters

Golf Buggies and other motorised equipment must be conditionally registered to be used at Camden. Vehicles of any kind are not permitted on the cross country track.

Dogs

Dogs must always be kept on a lead and you must clean up after your dog.

Image Consent

By entering this event you give your consent to ENSW to copy or reproduce images of yourself, without acknowledgement of yourself and without your entitlement to any remuneration or compensation now or in the future. The images may be used by ENSW in multimedia productions, publications, brochures and on the website to promote a range of initiatives.

Liability

Riders and/or owners whose entries have been accepted will undertake to indemnify ENSW against all claims, losses, suits and damages made against or suffered by ENSW by reason of any negligent act or omission on the part of any rider, trainer or attendant whilst attending riding or otherwise handling a horse, and agrees that act or omission on the part of such rider or attendant found in any action against the organising body to be negligent shall be deemed to have been negligent for the purpose of any claim under this indemnity.

Biosecurity

ENSW has a legal obligation under Workplace Health and Safety legislation to provide a safe clinic. Welfare of our horses is also the founding principle under FEI and Equestrian Australia rules.

Entries will be accepted on condition that riders/owners agree to waive any right to seek compensation of any type from ENSW, Camden Bicentennial Equestrian Park, or any of their officers, servants or agents for any loss, injury or other damage arising in any way whatsoever, directly or indirectly from the presence of any virus in any horse or person attending the event or from any person or animal contracting any illness or disability, whether directly or indirectly or howsoever otherwise.

EA Policies

This ENSW event is governed by the Equestrian Australia (EA) General Regulations, applicable EA Sports Rules and all relevant EA Codes, policies, bylaws, rules and regulations. The EA Sport rules (i.e. the National Rules for each EA sport or discipline) and regulations may be accessed on the EA website via the following link Discipline Rules and Regulations

ENSW events are also subject to various codes and regulations designed to protect the horse, the welfare of which is paramount (Horse Welfare Provisions). Entrants and Competitors must familiarise themselves with the Horse Welfare Provisions and ensure that they are complied with them.

The EA Codes, Policies etc. may be accessed on the EA website via the following link

Policies and Bylaws

All ENSW events are subject to the EA Code of Conduct (Code of Conduct). The Code of Conduct can be accessed on the EA website via the following link.

Equestrian Australia Code of Conduct

It is important that all members understand that the Code of Conduct also covers parents, guardians, and spectators in respect of any activity held or sanctioned by ENSW. A key aim of the Code of Conduct is to respect the rights of everyone involved, to abide by all EA rules and requirements, to be fair, considerate, honest and professional in all aspects of the sport. At the time of entry you are required to confirm you have read and agree to the Codes of Conduct.

ENSW is committed to the protection and welfare of its members. The EA Member Protection Policy can be accessed on the EA website via the following link.

EA Member Protection Policy

The EA Social Media Policy applies and can be accessed here

EA Social Media Policy

It should be read in conjunction with the Member Protection Policy. These are important documents designed to ensure the safe and fair conduct of the event for everyone involved. They should be read, understood, and complied with.

Entrants are reminded that comments that are contrary to the spirit and integrity of the sport of equestrian will not be tolerated.

- Be kind and respectful
- Do not engage in illegal or unethical behaviour
- Think before you post

Reservation of Right

ENSW reserves the right:

- To cancel any class or event
- Riders will be allocated coaches at random within the discipline they select.
- To refuse any entry, with or without stating the reason
- To make additional statements with regards to the rules/processes based on horse welfare and safety.

Disclaimer of Liability

ENSW will not accept any liability for any accident, damage, injury or illness to horses, athletes, ground, spectators or any other person or property whatsoever.
