

Hallmark Farm Dressage FAQ

- Q. Can i change my draw time if I'm not quite warmed up yet?
- A. No - Stick to your allocated draw test times please we cant push dressage back as it effect all the riders

- Q. Can i be lead around my dressage test?
- A. Yes the Prep A Tests are walk / trot only and riders may be led if needed.

- Q. Im riding a very green OTT and he is requires a martingale, can i use it in my dressage test?
- A. The use of martingales IS ALLOWED in the actual dressage test - not excessively short - just normal length for safety if your horse enjoys being slightly on the wild side. We would rather not see your nose smooshed over your face. - PLEASE NOTE - however in any other dressage test even at "unofficial competitions" you are not allowed to use martingales in dressage - this a real training environment so i allow them - Megan xx

- Q. Can i use my nice fancy boots and or matching bandages ?
- A. All classes: boots and bandages ARE ALLOWED (this is a silent nod to the matchy matchy brigade 😊)again though, like the martingale rule at any other competition they will Not allow you to.

- Q. What do i wear?
- A. DRESS CODE: - show jacket or just neat tidy casual. Matchy matchy sets are also allowed.
- HOWEVER - please if its warm no sleeveless at least a short sleeve.
- IF ITS RAINING AND COLD you may wear a water proof jacket but please keep it neat and tidy and not flapping around

- Q. Do i have to plait up
- A. PLAITING : optional
