VAS Ltd Saddle Horse Championships

Background of the Championships

The VAS Ltd Saddle Horse Championships began in 1996. The VASA committee introduced an event that would not only Showcase champion horses and riders from across Victoria, but in turn increase exhibitor numbers at country Shows.

The 'Best of the Best' event has grown steadily and is now recognised as a 'competitor friendly Championships'.

The championships have developed over the years with now holding three State Finals at the Championships including the Racing Victoria Off the Track Series, Alabar HERO Series and the Good Hands Challenge Trophy.

Qualifications

The qualifications for the championships are taken from 1st January 2019 to 15th December 2019 including the Kingston Show. For each section there are requirements for qualifications:

Open Classes: 1 Champion or 2 Reserve Champions or 2 First Places

Rising Star & First Season: Must have attended & competed at 3 VAS Ltd Affiliated Shows

Rider Classes: First Place or 2 Second Places at a VAS Ltd Affiliated Shows

All information regarding the Saddle Horse Championships can be found on the following link: <http://www.vicagShows.com.au/saddle-horse>

GENERAL REGULATIONS

1. All general entries must be made in writing and lodged with the Secretary, St. Arnaud, all sections have closing times stated, please adhere to these. All entries will be finally closed for this exhibition as stated.
2. At the time of entry, the Class and Section in which it is intended to exhibit must be stated and signed by or for the exhibitor. A ticket for each exhibit will be given by the secretary at the time of entry, which must accompany the exhibit when placed and no entry will be received without such ticket.
3. Everything exhibited for a prize, except livestock, vehicles, machinery and implements must be produced or manufactured in Australia. All exhibits must be the bona-fide property of, and in the possession of, the exhibitor, and all farm and dairy produce must be grown or made by the exhibitor, and of last season's crop.
4. Entries will not be restricted in any Section (excepting Sections M and O) and if any exhibitor is awarded a second prize in addition to a first, with the same exhibit, such prizes will be paid (except where otherwise stated.)
5. Exhibitors can compete with the same entry in as many Sections as they may choose, but on winning a first prize cannot compete again, except in special or champion prizes, and where otherwise specified in the Schedule.
6. Exhibits which cannot be shown in any competing Class may be exhibited as extras.
7. The Society invites the exhibition of articles other than those for which prizes are offered, and the judges may recommend prizes to those thought worthy, the said recommendation to be considered at the next monthly meeting of the Committee.
8. No prize can be awarded for extra exhibits if the prize list contains a Class or Section in which the same can compete.
9. Should any exhibit, having gained a prize, be disqualified, the next on the list does not necessarily obtain the same prize. The Committee, with or without the advice of the judges, shall decide the question.
10. The judges may award a second or third prize instead of a first prize, or may withhold a prize altogether where there is only one exhibit, or where the exhibits are not considered worthy.
11. The Committee may withhold any prize when statements have been erroneously or fraudulently made regarding any exhibit, and exhibitors guilty of false entries or statements may be debarred from again exhibiting and, if members, will be liable to expulsion.
12. In the judging ring, stewards are requested to keep aloof from the judges while they are engaged in adjudication and to make no remarks whatsoever to them on the merits of the exhibits or any of the exhibits
13. The Committee shall have the power at any time to disqualify any exhibits for any reason which shall appear to the Committee to warrant such disqualification, whether a protest or complaint be lodged or not.
14. Any dispute as to the interpretation of these regulations shall be determined by the Committee, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.
15. If, in the opinion of the stewards, the conduct of any exhibitor or any other person shall be such as to demand such a course, they shall have the power to forfeit any or all prizes such exhibitors may have won and may further cause such person or exhibitor and exhibit or exhibits to be removed from the Showgrounds.
16. Any person refusing to attach a prize card on any exhibit to which the prize is awarded, and to keep the same on during the hours of exhibition, will, on proof thereof to the Committee, be disqualified from receiving all prizes awarded to the said person during the Show.
17. Any prize or prizes awarded by the Society at any of its exhibitions, and left unclaimed for a period of six months, may be forfeited and cancelled by the Committee of management.
18. All implements, machinery and other articles which will not be injured thereby, must be delivered in the yards between the hours of 10 o'clock in the forenoon and six o'clock in the afternoon of the day preceding the exhibition. Exhibits in all other Classes at 9:30am, if not otherwise stated.

39. Hats and safety helmets.

Wearing a ASA approved helmet is compulsory for everyone competing on, working in or schooling or riding for any other reason a horse at a Show or in any area considered to be for whatever reason a part of the showground.

All riders must wear protective headgear, which includes a retaining harness secured to the shell at more than two points. Such headwear must be worn with the chinstrap properly adjusted and fastened when in the arena or ring, the practice area collecting rings or anywhere else within a showgrounds.

It is compulsory that all riders wear protective headwear conforming to the current Australian Standard or an equivalent standard and that the headwear be secured by a retention harness.

40. Animal Abuse.

Any alleged acts of animal abuse are reportable during the event to the organized body, supported by at least two other witnesses, or after the event to V.A.S. Ltd in writing. Two separate letters must be received in writing by V.A.S. Ltd from unrelated members or different families within fourteen (14) days of the date of the event, giving rise to the incident.

NOTE:

Abuse can be defined as intentionally acting in a way that may cause pain or unnecessary discomfort to an animal. As examples, an act of abuse can be any of the following.

To whip or beat an animal excessively.

To subject an animal to any kind of electric shock device.

To use spurs, or to jab an animal in the mouth with a bit or any other instrument, excessively or persistently.

To remount, or attempt to remount, an obviously exhausted, lame or injured animal.

To "Rap" a horse anywhere in or outside the grounds of the event.

To hyper sensitize any part of the animal.

To leave an animal without adequate food, drink or exercise.

41. No person who is in arrears with regard to entry fee, subscriptions, or any other Show charge is eligible to compete at any Show held by or affiliated with V.A.S. Ltd. Proof of payment will be required before any restriction will be lifted.

The St. Arnaud Agricultural Society Inc. is committed to providing a safe, healthy and environmentally acceptable Showground for all stakeholders.

We shall, so far as is practicable endeavour to comply with all statutory and Common Law requirements.

All competitors and exhibitors have a "Duty of Care" to avoid exposing themselves or other people to unsafe situations that could lead to injury.

19. Each exhibitor must place his exhibits in the proper Class where directed, with the ticket received from the Secretary, stating the Class, Section and Number in which his exhibit has been entered.
20. All horses, when being judged, are to be led, ridden or driven as directed by the judges.
21. The Committee reserves to itself the right of refusing to admit into the yard any animal which there is reason to suspect is either diseased or dangerous.
22. The Committee shall also have power to require that statutory declaration be made concerning any animal, or article, which it has reason to suppose is being exhibited contrary to the rules connected with the exhibition.
23. The decision of the judges shall be final with regard to all prizes offered, except in cases where protests are duly lodged with the secretary, as directed hereunder.
24. Any person insulting, or interfering with the judges during the Show will be subject to removal from the yards and the prizes (if any) awarded to him, forfeited.
25. No appeal against the decision of the judges will be entertained unless the same be made in writing, and lodged with the secretary before noon on the day following the Show, and a deposit of $2 be made, which shall be forfeited if the Committee considers the appeal to be frivolous. Any exhibitor attempting to mislead the judges or stewards in any Class or Section, or competing in any Section, where he is not eligible according to the rules governing such Section, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $10, and disqualification. This will be strictly enforced.
26. In the event of any protest being received, the same will be considered immediately by the Stewards or, if this is not possible, by the Committee at the next Committee meeting.
27. No judge shall be an exhibitor in the department in which he is judge.
28. The Society will not hold itself responsible for the safe custody of exhibits, but every care will be taken of same during day of Show and following day.
29. Exhibitors are requested to have some person in charge of their exhibit, as no owner of the same will be allowed to be present during the adjudication by the judges (except where otherwise stated).
30. No persons, except members (and non-members upon payment of stated charge of admission) and those actually in charge of stock, implements or machinery and from whom an authority must be obtained, will be permitted to remain in the yards during the adjudication under any pretence whatever. The persons in charge must on no account leave their respective lots, or address the judges, unless authorized by the stewards of the exhibition.
31. Intending competitors are particularly requested to observe the time fixed for closing of the entries at this office, and also the hour fixed for receiving the exhibits on the morning of the Show, as these rules will be strictly enforced; and also, that no entry will be received unless accompanied by the entrance fee, or from a member whose subscription is paid for the current year.
32. Entry fees in all Sections are stated at the beginning of each Section details.
33. The exhibition will be open both days of the Show, to members who have paid their subscription for the year on presentation of their ticket of membership to the steward at the gate (member's ticket will, on presentation, admit a lady and gentleman and members of family up to the age of 16 years, and member's car). The public will be admitted on the day of the Show at a uniform charge of : Adults $20.00; Children from five years to 16 years $10; under five years, free.
Sunday 7th October: ADMITTANCE IS FREE.
34. Chief Steward and stewards in pavilion are eligible to enter, but are expressly excluded from speaking to the judges during judging.
35. Any infringement of these rules will disqualify exhibitors from taking any prizes awarded to them.
36. In case of disputes as to the same, these shall be determined by the Committee of this Society, W.A.S.A. or V.A.S. Ltd.
37. The St. Arnaud Agricultural Society will not be responsible for any injury or loss incurred by an entrant or competitors. Any person participating in any activity related to the Show does so at his or her own risk.
38. In case of equal first, the first and second prize money will be combined and then divided equally between the equal first place getters. No second is given if there is equal first. If equal second, that prize money is shared. Where a ribbon or sash is involved, an extra one will be acquired and forwarded to the person concerned.
