President's Welcome

I am once again delighted to contribute a few words of welcome to our Show.

The Committee is looking forward to a complete program for our 149th Show in 2023. We had two years without a Show due to Covid, followed by last year's very wet Show without animals.

We hope to again provide entertainment and friendly competition in all the traditional areas. Junior entrants can this year win increased prize money, while all sections now offer a range of bonus prizes and awards, thanks to the generosity of local sponsors.

DDAS is again participating in the Junior Show and Rural Ambassador Awards, which offer winners the opportunity to go on to compete at Group, State & National levels, where considerable rewards are offered. Entry details are in this schedule.

We hope we offer a friendly day out in one of the loveliest showgrounds in Victoria, where everyone in the family should find something of interest. We are particularly proud of our free activities and entertainment for children, and I hope you enjoy this year's Show.
